Parks and Recreation – Sandy Keat HHIA Meeting Jan 23,2017

SCHABARUM REGIONAL PARK -- 17250 E. Colima Rd., Rowland Heights (626-854-5560

It is hard to believe that we have such a beautiful piece of nature right in our back yard, so to speak. If you haven't been to this park, you are missing a special treat. The trees are beautiful and so unique. No wonder so many engaged couples want to have their pictures taken at this location. Besides all the beauty that is here, you have tennis for kids, AYSO soccer, Horse rentals and boarding facilities, Basketball courts, walking trails as well as health and fitness classes being offered.

There will be a Spring Festival on Saturday, March 4th from 11 am to 4 pm. Multi-cultural music, dance & exercise performances by adult and youth group throughout the day. Special kids area with face painting, bounce house, games & crafts just for kids. Opportunity Drawings for great prizes , including a Big Screen TV. Good food from Casa Blanca Mexican Food, KFC and Kettle Korn This is a free event.

STEINMETZ PARK & SENIOR CENTER – 1545 W. Stimson Ave., Hacienda Heights, CA

This Senior Center has a lot to offer, but unfortunately when I went to pick up their list of special events, I was surprised to find their doors locked and closed – maybe our weather got to them. I did go on line to check what they have to offer and, again, they have many different classes – some have a fee. They offer Advanced Guitar class at no charge, and their bingo is on Fridays from 1 to 4:30 pm (also free), as well as a card club, no fee, on Wed & Fri from 1 to 4:30 pm. There are aerobics, strengthening, stretching, dance for exercise and other types of exercise classes. So check this out and see how it can help you.

HACIENDA HEIGHTS COMMUNITY CENTER – 1234 Valencia Ave., Hacienda Heights, CA

Here is another center that offers so much for our community. The important event that will be taking place on Tuesday, Jan. 24th, from 7:00 pm to 12:00 am is the need for volunteers to help with the Homeless Count of 2017. Everyone will meet at the Hacienda Heights Community Center for instructions on how they will participate. For more information please contact Daniella Alcedo at 213-225-8462, or LA County 4th Supervisorial District Field Office 909-594-6561. You can sign up to volunteer at: http://www.theycountwillyou.org/

In addition pick up one of their brochures that lists all the programs and classes that are being offered.
